CHAP. 259. AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF COMBINATION POLICIES FOR CREDIT INSURANCE.

No such policy shall be issued or delivered until a copy of the form thereof has been on file for thirty days with the commissioner, unless before the expiration of said thirty days he shall approve the form of the policy in writing; nor if the commissioner notifies the companies in writing within said thirty days that in his opinion the form of the policy does not comply with the laws of the commonwealth specifying his reasons therefor, provided, that such action of the commissioner shall be subject to review by the supreme judicial court; nor unless the corporate names of all the companies are affixed thereto; nor unless such policy contains in substance the following:-

(1) A provision specifying the percentage of loss or claim for which each such company shall be liable.

LEGISLATION

Insurance (Acts of 1963)

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

CHAP. 128. AN ACT AUTHORIZING CERTAIN DOMESTIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES TO INVEST IN REAL PROPERTY IN PUERTO RICO.

Whereas, the deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to authorize forthwith certain domestic life insurance companies to invest in real property in Puerto Rico, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc. as follows:

Section 66B of chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 269 of the acts of 1947, and inserting in place thereof the following sentence: - Any domestic life company may purchase, lease, acquire by gift or otherwise and hold without any limitation of time, any real property, or any interest therein, in any state of the United States in which it is authorized to transact business, and in Puerto Rico if authorized to transact business therein, and may use such property for investment purposes as well as any other real property owned, held or leased by it; provided, that such property shall not include property the primary income from which is or is intended to be derived from agriculture, horticulture or animal husbandry.

Approved March 13, 1963.

CHAP. 130. AN ACT RELATIVE TO MORTALITY TABLES IN CONNECTION WITH VALUATION STANDARDS AND NONFORFEITURE BENEFITS FOR INDUSTRIAL POLICIES OF LIFE INSURANCE.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 9 of chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out paragraph Second, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 227 of the acts of 1943, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

Second, For all industrial policies of life insurance issued on a standard basis, excluding any total and permanent disability and accidental death benefits in such policies, the "1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table" shall be used for such policies issued prior to January first, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight and the "Commissioners 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table" shall be used for such policies issued on or after said date.

Section 2. Section 146 of said chapter 175 is hereby amended by striking out the third paragraph, as appearing in section 4 of said chapter 227, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

All adjusted premiums for and the present values of any such policy issued on a standard basis prior to January first, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight shall be computed on the basis of the "1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table". In the case of such policies issued on or after January first, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight, all such adjusted premiums and present values shall be computed on the basis of the "Commissioners 1961 Standard Industrial Mortality Table", and in computing the present value of any extended term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the "Commissioners 1961 Industrial Extended Term Insurance Table".

Section 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph Second of subdivision 2 of section nine and the third paragraph of section one hundred and forty-six of chapter one hundred and seventy-five of the General Laws, as appearing in sections one and two, respectively, of this act, any life insurance company may elect to have the provisions of said paragraph Second and said third paragraph become effective as to its operations at an earlier date by filing a written notice with the insurance commissioner of its election to comply with the provisions of said paragraph Second and of said third paragraph on or after a specified date before January first, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight. On the date specified in said notice the provisions of said paragraph Second and of said third paragraph shall become effective with respect to policies of industrial insurance thereafter issued by such company.

CHAP. 211. AN ACT RELATING TO DIVIDEND OPTIONS IN LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES.

Be it enacted, etc. as follows:

The first paragraph of section 140 of chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the third sentence, as appearing in the Tercentenary Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:- Each such dividend shall annually, at the option of the holder of the policy, (a) be payable in cash, or (b) applied in reduction of premiums, or (c) to the purchase of a paid-up addition, or (d) be left with the company to accumulate to the credit of the policy and be payable at the maturity thereof, or be withdrawable in cash on demand by the holder of the policy, or applied as hereinafter set forth; but if no election is made by the holder of the policy, prior to any anniversary thereof, the dividend for that anniversary shall be applied under option (c) or held under option (d), whichever option is designated by the terms of the policy; and if any premium on the policy is not paid at the expiration of the days of grace and dividends have been applied under option (c) or held under option (d), the company may keep the policy in force by applying the cash value of any paid-up additions or any dividend accumulations to the payment due on the policy if the cash value of such additions or the amount of such accumulations is sufficient to make said payment in full, and shall forthwith mail a notice to the holder thereof at his last known address, stating the amount of such cash values or of such accumulations which have been so applied, and the amount, if any, of paid-up additions and the cash value thereof remaining or, in the case of dividend accumulations the balance, if any, remaining to the credit of the policy; notwithstanding anything herein provided, the share of the surplus so apportioned to a term policy shall not be available for the purchase of a paid-up addition, and nothing herein contained shall operate to continue a policy in force beyond the period which the cash value of any paid-up addition or any dividend accumulation so applied would carry the policy under its full premium rate, nor beyond the term for which the policy was originally issued, and that the affidavit of any officer, clerk or agent of the company, or of any one authorized to mail such notice, that the notice required by this section has been duly mailed by the company, shall be prima facie evidence that such notice was duly given.

(2) This section shall apply to any of the life insurance policies of a domestic life insurance company, if its board of directors elects to comply with and become subject to the provisions of this section and forwards to the commissioner appropriate notice of such determination.

Approved April 10, 1963.

CHAP. 521. AN ACT TO FACILITATE THE CONTINUED OPERATION OF DOMESTIC INSURANCE COMPANIES AND FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES IN THE EVENT OF CERTAIN NATIONAL EMERGENCIES.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 180L, under the caption CONTINUITY OF OPERATION OF INSURERS IN NATIONAL EMERGENCIES, the following five sections:-

Section 180 M. As used in this section and in sections one hundred and eighty N to one hundred and eighty Q, inclusive, the following words shall have the following meanings:-

"National emergency", an emergency caused by an attack on the United States or by a nuclear, atomic or other disaster which makes it impossible or impracticable for a company to conduct its business in strict accord with law, it by-laws or its charter.

"Domestic company", shall also include the United States branch of a foreign insurance company formed under the laws of any government or state, other than the United States or one of the United States, which, being authorized to do business in the commonwealth, has its principal office in the commonwealth, and the term "board of directors" shall also include the resident manager in the United States of such a company.

Section 180N. In order to promote the general welfare and in particular the welfare of insurance beneficiaries, policyholders, injured claimants and others by enabling domestic insurance companies to continue their business in the event of a national emergency, any domestic company may adopt by-laws reasonably necessary for the operation of the company during a national emergency. The board of directors of any such company may at any time adopt emergency by-laws subject to the approval of the commissioner or a duly designated person exercising the powers of the commissioner, and subject to repeal or change by action of those having power to adopt regular by-laws for the company, which shall be operative during a national emergency and which may, notwithstanding any different provisions of the regular by-laws or of the applicable statutes, or of the company's charter, make any provision that may be reasonably necessary for the operation of the company during the period of such emergency.

Section 180 O. In the event that by-laws have not been adopted as provided in section one hundred and eighty N, the following provisions shall become effective upon the occurrence of a national emergency:-

(1) Three directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the board.

(2) Any vacancy in the board may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum or though a sole remaining director.

(3) If there are no surviving directors, but at least three vice-presidents of the company survive, the three vice-presidents with the longest term of service shall be the directors and shall possess all of the powers of the previous board of directors and such powers as are granted herein or by subsequently enacted legislation. By majority vote, such emergency board of directors may elect other directors. If there are not at least three surviving vice-presidents, the commissioner or a duly designated person exercising the powers of the commissioner shall appoint three persons as directors who shall possess all of the powers of the previous board of directors and such powers as are granted herein or by subsequently enacted legislation, and these persons by majority vote may elect other directors. The directors who hold office under this paragraph shall hold office only until succeeded by directors elected at the next regular annual meeting of the company, but if the regular annual meeting of the company is not scheduled to occur within six months of the termination of the national emergency, a special meeting of the company shall be called within six months after the termination of such emergency at which meeting directors shall be elected to succeed those holding office under this paragraph.

Section 180P. At any time the board of directors of a domestic company may, by resolution, provide that in the event of a national emergency and in the event of the death or incapacity of the president, secretary and treasurer of said company, such officers, or any of them, shall be succeeded in office by the person named or described in a succession list adopted by the board. CONCLUSION

The General Court in 1963 enacted legislation which expanded existing coverages and further regulated insurance particularly in the field of Life Insurance.

Pursuant to the maximum attainment in the performance of duties and responsibilities, your Commissioner established and maintained adequate facilities to comply with the Commonwealth regulatory Insurance Laws. This was augmented by the serving on a number of committees of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, and as a member of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee which in the performance of the duties on these committees disseminated information valuable to the insurance industry both from a state and public level.

In addition, ever mindful of these obligations and responsibilities, your Commissioner and his well qualified supervising staff and personnel made every effort to stay abreast of developments in all segments of the Industry to insure the public and the Insurance Industry, substantial equity in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth.

Respectfully submitted,

C. Eugene Farnam

Commonwealth Mutual Liability Insurance Company - Henry P. Fielding, Charles F. Lovejoy and William C. Giles, 6 Beacon Street, Boston, were appointed temporary Receivers on December 15, 1936 and these appointments were made permanent on December 26,1936. Later, William D. Giles resigned. The records were subsequently transferred to the home of Mr. Fielding at 15 Montague Street, Dorchester. In the absence of any order from the Court, the Receivers have not turned over to the Commonwealth the cash to cover outstanding checks nor deposited the Receivership records with the Commissioner of Insurance. As of December 31, 1964, the outstanding checks had been reduced to $585.35 which together with the cash balance of $13.15 in the receiver's account constituted the bank deposit of $599.50 with the State Street Trust Company, Boston, Massachusetts.

CONCLUSION

The General Court in 1965 enacted legislation which expanded existing coverages and further regulated our Insurance Laws in many areas.

Pursuant to the maximum attainment in the performance of duties and responsibilities, your Commissioner established and maintained adequate facilities to comply with the Commonwealth regulatory Insurance Laws. This was augmented by the serving on a number of committees of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, and as a member of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee which in the performance of the duties on these committees disseminated information valuable to the insurance industry both from a state and public level.

In addition, ever mindful of these obligations and responsibilities, your Commissioner and his well qualified supervising staff and personnel made every effort to stay abreast of developments in all segments of the Industry to insure the public and the Insurance Industry, substantial equity in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth.

Respectfully submitted,

C. Eugene Farnam
